New Therapeutic Boarding School for Girls Coming to Flat Rock, NC

Greenwich, CONN., June 14, 2010 – Greenwich Education & Prep, based in Cos Cob, Connecticut, is launching a private, therapeutic boarding school for girls ages 10 through 14. The school has been named The Lake House Academy, and will be located on Lily Pad Lane, in Flat Rock, NC. The school will open on June 30, 2010

The Lake House Academy programs are tailored to the developmental, social, emotional and academic needs of pre-adolescent and young adolescent girls. The focus is on helping girls gain the skills they need to be successful in the home, at school and with friends.

Lake House Academy will be operated under the direction of Catherine “Cat” Jennings. Executive Director Catherine “Cat” Jennings has more than twenty-five years working with children at-risk. A pioneer in the field of treatment programs for emotionally, socially, and behaviorally challenged adolescents; Cat has founded three programs devoted to helping students struggling with ADHD, learning differences, social skills development, and autism. Her programs include the Talisman Summer Programs, a co-educational summer camp for children ages 9-18; Camp Elliot, a licensed mental health program/ therapeutic school for emotionally disturbed boys; and Stone Mountain School, an emotional growth boarding school for boys grades 6 -12. In 2000, the Aspen Education Group acquired Stone Mountain School as part of its family of services. In 2004, Cat was selected to lead New Leaf Academy of North Carolina, a personal development boarding school for girls.
